Sub Group: Side Gable Bungalow

Builder/Contractor: Not Identified

Description: This one-story side gable Craftsman bungalow has a central gabled entry porch flanked by groups of windows, the southern one non-original. The house was raised several feet at some time resulting in the loss of the original entry porch, brick masonry piers and stair cheeks, as well as the brick masonry chimney on the southern side. The house is sheathed with cedar shingles and the eaves and bargeboards are supported by knee braces.

Cultural Data: Johnson Sherrick was the brother of Dr. Jacob D. Sherrick, a prominent University District druggist.
